   With respect to any one or more "certified acts of terrorism" under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act we will not pay any amounts for which we are not responsible under the terms of that Act (including subsequent action of Congress pursuant to the Act) due to the application of any clause which results in a cap on our liability for payments for terrorism losses.

2. APPLICATION OF OTHER EXCLUSIONS
   The terms and limitations of any terrorism exclusion, or the inapplicability or omission of a terrorism exclusion, do not serve to create coverage for any loss which would otherwise be excluded under this Property Coverage Part, such as losses excluded by the III.B.1.d. NUCLEAR HAZARD exclusion, III.B.1.e. "WAR" AND MILITARY ACTION exclusion or III.B.2.e. POLLUTION exclusion.

B. The following is applicable to the LIABILITY COVERAGE PART, DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS LIABILITY COVERAGE PART, EMPLOYEE BENEFITS LIABILITY COVERAGE PART and ENVIRONMENTAL IMPAIRMENT LIABILITY COVERAGE PART:

Extended Reporting Periods do not extend the "policy period" or change the scope of coverage provided.

   a. Given written notice of such creation or acquisition together with any underwriting information which may be required; and
   b. Received written approval from us and paid any additional premium required.

F. CONSOLIDATION OR MERGER

In the event that the Named Insured acquires by merger, or consolidates with, or is merged into or

<th>CHANGE IN THE DEFINITION OF CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM</th>

<tr>
<td>Under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2007, the definition of “certified acts of terrorism” no longer requires that the act of terrorism be committed by or on behalf of a foreign interest. Therefore, coverage for, or an exclusion for, “certified acts of terrorism” is no longer limited to an act of terrorism committed by or on behalf of a foreign interest. For example, the definition of “certified acts of terrorism” now includes an act committed against the United States government by a United States citizen, when the act is determined by the federal government to be a “certified act of terrorism” under the terms of the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Program.</td>

<td>This policy does not contain a terrorism exclusion. However, the policy contains an endorsement under which coverage for “certified acts of terrorism” (which is more fully defined in the endorsement but involves acts of terrorism by or on behalf of a foreign interest) is subject to a limit on our liability pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act. Further, the absence of a terrorism exclusion does not create coverage for any loss, injury or damage that would otherwise be excluded under the policy, such as property losses excluded by the nuclear hazard or war exclusions or liability losses excluded by the war liability exclusion.</td>

| The terrorism endorsement in this policy makes a distinction between “certified acts of terrorism” (which is more fully defined in the endorsement, but involves acts of terrorism that are committed by or on behalf of a foreign interest and general aggregate losses in excess of $5 million) and “other acts of terrorism”. Both types of terrorism are excluded from coverage but the exclusions are subject to different terms and conditions. The exclusion of “certified acts of terrorism” relates to criteria in the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act. |
| The exclusion, under property insurance, of coverage for “other acts of terrorism” (terrorist acts other than certified acts) applies only if aggregate insured losses from the event exceed $25 million, or if the event involves biological or chemical materials under certain circumstances. With respect to “certified acts of terrorism” and “other acts of terrorism”, policy exclusions (for example, the nuclear hazard and war exclusions) and other policy provisions continue to apply. |
| The endorsement in this policy also excludes, under liability insurance, coverage for “other acts of terrorism” (terrorist acts other than certified acts) but such exclusion applies only if: |
| 1) Aggregate losses from the event exceed $25 million; or |
| 2) Fifty or more persons sustain death or physical injury; or |
| 3) If the event qualified as a nuclear event; or |
| 4) If the event qualified under certain circumstances as a biological or chemical event. |
| With respect to “certified acts of terrorism” and “other acts of terrorism”, policy exclusions (for example, the war liability exclusion) and other policy provisions continue to apply. |

When your previous policy includes CAU 1980, the following also applies: The terrorism exclusion does not restrict fire coverage under property insurance due to a statutory requirement in this state. Therefore, losses attributable to fire following an act of terrorism, if otherwise covered, remain covered under such insurance.

When your previous policy includes CAU 1982 11 02 - Exclusion Of “Certified Acts Of Terrorism”; Coverage For Certain Fire Losses:
This policy contains an endorsement excluding coverage for “certified acts of terrorism”, which is more fully defined in the endorsement but involves acts of terrorism by or on behalf of a foreign interest.

The terrorism exclusion does not restrict fire coverage under the property insurance due to a statutory requirement in this state. Therefore, losses attributable to fire following an act of terrorism, if otherwise covered, remain covered under such insurance.

YOUR RENEWAL POLICY

When your renewal policy includes CAU 1930 03 08 – Cap On Losses From “Certified Acts Of Terrorism”:
- This policy does not contain a terrorism exclusion. However, the policy contains an endorsement under which coverage for “certified acts of terrorism” (which is more fully defined in the endorsement but involves acts of terrorism certified as such under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Program) is subject to a limit on our liability and the liability of the federal government pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as outlined below. Further, the absence of a terrorism exclusion does not create coverage for any loss that would otherwise be excluded under the policy, such as losses excluded by the nuclear hazard and war exclusions. Refer to the terrorism endorsement for the definition of “certified acts of terrorism.” Refer to the endorsement, and to the rest of the insurance contract, for provisions that govern coverage for, or that exclude coverage for, losses arising from terrorism.

- Information On Limitations On Federal And Insurer Liability: The federal government may participate in paying for some of the losses from a “certified act of terrorism”. However, if aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act exceed $100 billion in a Program Year (January 1 through December 31), the Treasury shall not make any payment for any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. Further, this coverage is subject to a limit on our liability pursuant to the federal law, that is, if aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act exceed $100 billion in a Program Year (January 1 through December 31) and we have met our insurer deductible under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, we shall not be liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. In such case insured losses up to that amount are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of the Treasury.

When your renewal policy includes CAU 1981 03 08 – Exclusion Of “Certified Acts Of Terrorism” or CAU 1980 03 08 – Exclusion Of “Certified Acts Of Terrorism”; Coverage For Certain Fire Losses:
This policy contains an endorsement excluding coverage for “certified acts of terrorism”, which is more fully defined in the endorsement but involves acts of terrorism certified as such under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Program. Refer to the terrorism endorsement for the definition of “certified acts of terrorism.” Refer to the endorsement, and to the rest of the insurance contract, for provisions that govern coverage for, or that exclude coverage for, losses arising from terrorism.

When your renewal policy includes CAU 1980, the following also applies: The terrorism exclusion does not restrict fire coverage under property insurance due to a statutory requirement. Therefore, losses attributable to fire following an act of terrorism, if otherwise covered, remain covered under your insurance. Such coverage is subject to all policy exclusions (for example, the nuclear hazard and war exclusions) and other policy provisions. The federal government may participate in paying for some of the losses for fire following a “certified act of terrorism”. However, if aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act exceed $100 billion in a Program Year (January 1 through December 31), the Treasury shall not make any payment for any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. Further, this coverage is subject to a limit on our liability pursuant to the federal law, that is, if aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act exceed $100 billion in a Program Year (January 1 through December 31) and we have met our insurer deductible under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, we shall not be liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. In such case insured losses up to that amount are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of the Treasury.
